

Development Internship — Downtown Los Angeles office

Are you bothered by the fact that 9 out of 10 Californian's breathe air that violates Federal Clean Air Act standards? Does climate change burn you up? Do you think it's unfair that people who live in poor neighborhoods are exposed to a toxic soup of dirty air on a daily basis?

Do you want to do something about it?

Interns at the Coalition for Clean Air (CCA) play a valuable role in our fight to restore clean, healthy air to California. Join our team of experienced professionals as we move the needle forward on policies that will save lives and improve the quality of life for Californians.

Interns will learn tactics around social media, email communications, donor relations and prospect research. Interning at CCA will give you real-world experience in the fast-moving communications and development fields in a fun, collegial atmosphere.

Our organization values creativity, collaboration, and standing up for the little guy. We are looking for someone with attention to detail, an inquisitive mind and excellent research skills. Interns are considered volunteers (school credit or unpaid) and must be available at least 12-16 hours per week. We are looking for a 10-week commitment.
